Community Vitality Opportunities

We can help your community become a better place to live, work, and play. K-State Research and Extension Community Vitality provides opportunities in:

Community Capacity Building: K-State Research and Extension delivers technical assistance and evidence-based programs to assist citizens who want to make sure their communities survive and prosper. Programming is available in the following areas:

- Entrepreneurship: Resources for Economic Growth
- First Impressions: A Method to Boost Community Vitality
- The Gold Standard of Customer Relations: Relationship Building Between Businesses and Consumers

Volunteer Organization and Training: K-State Research and Extension can assist in leadership organization, and help people create a vision across traditional geographical, sociological, and political boundaries.

- Board Leadership Series: You are serving on a board...now what?
- Grant Writing Training: Partnering with Funders to Achieve Community Goals
- Kansas PRIDE Program: Vibrant Communities with a Positive Future
- Master Community Facilitator: A training for community volunteers to facilitate crucial community conversations
